

Learn how to
PLAY BRIDGE IN A DAY
Sunday, May 7, 2017

Playing a hand of bridge takes no more than a deck of cards, four people, and 10 minutes. Bridge has hooked players for close to a century. It is a game both easy to learn and challenging to master.

This seminar is intended for new players, or for anyone who has been away from the game for years. In 5 hours, you will learn the basics of bidding, play, and scoring for this fascinating pastime.

Where: Temple Reyim
1860 Washington St (Rt 16), Newton, MA
exit 19E off I-95, Near Newton Wellesley Hospital
Due to Jewish dietary restrictions, no outside food or drinks can be brought into the Temple

When: Sunday, May 7 12:30PM to 5:30PM

Cost: The seminar fee of $55 per student includes 1 year membership to the American Contract Bridge League and subscription to its great monthly magazine. Each student will receive a workbook and info packet. Snacks and drinks will be provided. Class is limited.

The course will be led by Adam Parrish.

Adam lives on Cape Cod. He teaches bridge throughout New England and around the country. He has written two books on bridge. His bridge writing has also been featured in The Bridge World and on Bridge Winners, where he serves as head of the site's educational initiatives. In addition to his bridge career, Adam is a playwright and screenwriter.
